AGUARIBAY, MALBEC 2017

Vallée de Uco

GRAPE VARIETY
Malbec

AGEING
12 months

DESCRIPTION

Located 120 kilometres south of Mendoza, Argentina, near the village of Vista Flores, the Flechas de los Andes vineyard now occupies more than 100 hectares in the Andean foothills. The first vines were planted in 1999 and they are quite dense for Argentina (5,500 vines per hectare).

The malbec grapes seem to have found their ideal location on these plots of rocks, granite pebbles and alluvial gravels perched at 1,100 metres above sea level

TASTING

Appearance : fairly deep crimson

Aroma : roasted notes, red fruits & spices

Palate : soft and smooth easy to drink
